Genoa, Dec. 8.

HE Armies in Lombardy are now retiring into Winter Quarters; the Auſtrians along the Penaro into the Modenese, and the Spaniards into the Roman State, about Ancona and Rimini. The Spaniſh Army under the Command of Count de Glymes, has been reinforced with 6000 Men from Catalo… Poſitive Orders have been ſent him to force his … Italy in one Way or other. …ſt of a Letter from the Army of Prince Charles,

Dec. 5.

'Our Batteries did ſuch Execution againſt the … of Braunau, that Yeſterday the Enemy thought …ſet on fire themſelves the Paper-mill, the Manu… of which was ſo famous thro' all Germany. In …ight we intended to ſtorm the Place with a De…ent of 3000 Foot and 500 Voluntiers. But be…fore the Hour came for the Attack, we were inform'd 'of the Approach of the Enemy's Army, which render'd 'it impracticable. This we the more regret, ſince the 'Troops were in full Spirits, refreſh'd with good Wine, 'and the private Soldiers encourag'd by the Diſtribution 'of a Florin a Man. What vex'd us moſt was, the Loſs 'of ſuch an Opportunity, for at Eleven we begun to fire 'red-hot Bullets, and before One, the great Magazin, and 'beſt Part of the Town was in Flames. We talk of re'newing the Bombardment to-night.

P. S. 'Marſhal Konigſegg is this Morning ſet out for 'Vienna.'

Dreſden, Dec. 11. This Court has iſſued Orders, throughout the whole Saxon Army, that, in each Regiment of Infantry, the Firſt Battalion, and, in each of Cavalry, the Firſt Squadron, be in Readineſs to march at an Hour's Warning. Upwards of 2000 Men are ſaid to have already died of the Gariſon of Prague, during the preſent Blockade of that Capital, and they continue to bury there, partly Inhabitants and partly Soldiers, near 200 a Day.

Paris, Dec. 22. Tho' the Cardinal de Fleury is much better in Health at preſent, than he has been lately, his Eminency ſtill continues at Iſſy, where he ſees only the French Miniſters. This Court is making Preparations for carrying on the War with Vigour the next Spring: Beſides the Augmentation, lately deſign'd, of 50,000 Men, of which there are to be 300 Companies of Horſe and Dragoons, they think of raiſing ſeven Battalions of German Foot, and 36 Companies of Huſſars. The printed Ordonnances for theſe Levies, are publiſhed this Morning.

LONDON.

Private Letters from Copenhagen fully confirm what has been long more than ſuſpected, viz. that the prodigious Armaments carried on by that Court in order viſibly to plunge the North into a new War, are excited by the Councils, and will probably be ſupported at the Expence of France. Abbe le Maire the French Miniſter there is daily in conference with thoſe who have the chief Direction of Affairs, and vehemently ſollicits the puſhing to the utmoſt the Intereſt which the Prince Royal of Denmark is ſaid to have among the Nobility and Clergy of Sweden.

The Court of Spain is equally incenſed againſt the Duke de Montemar and the Count de Glimes, who are both diſmiſſed from their Commands and forbid to return home. The Reaſon of this Prohibition is, to prevent their joining with a ſtrong Party already form'd amongſt the Nobility againſt the preſent Adminiſtration, which is accuſed of deceiving the King, and concealing from him the Diſtreſſes of his Subjects. The Scene however muſt ſhortly change, ſince it is certain both the Infants, Don Philip as well as Don Carlos, are quite weary of the War, and exceſſively deſirous to ſee it over.

His Sardinian Majeſty quitted Chamberry on the 5th Inſtant N. S. in order to return Poſt to Turin. Count Schulenbourg commands in chief the Army in Savoy in his Abſence. Some ſtrange Reports flew about there a little before his Majeſty's Departure, and amongſt the reſt one ſo extraordinary that it deſerves Notice, viz. That her Catholick Majeſty had ſignified to the King her high Senſe of his Wiſdom, Courage, and Integrity, and was willing therefore not only to leave to him the Eſtabliſhment of her Son Don Philip, but alſo the ſettling Terms of Peace with England, if his Majeſty ſhould incline to undertake both Tasks.

Prince Lobkowitz has completed his Line at the Diſtance of a League and a half from Prague, by which that City is ſo cloſely blockt up, that Marſhal Belliſle finds it neceſſary to thin the Place, by ordering great part of the Inhabitants to quit the City; and in order to provide himſelf with Firing, he has directed 1,100 Timber Houſes to be mark'd for pulling down, if within a certain Space their Owners cannot ſupply his Magazines with Wood.——— Such is the Generoſity, Juſtice, and Civility of French Auxiliaries, ſo much magnified in a Pamphlet lately publiſhed by Authority at Francktort.

It is certain that Prince Charles of Lorrain by bombarding Braunau has burnt and deſtroyed the only conſiderable Magazines which the Imperial Army had, that the haſty March of Marſhal Broglio's Army has harraſſed it exceſſively, and that by Marſhal Seckendorff's being admitted (as he muſt be) to Counſils of War, the Enemy are divided in their Meaſures, and know not what Reſolution to take. The Auſtrians remain ſtill in the Field, and the ſuperior Army of the Marſhals (as it is ca'led) came, ſaw, and, inſtead of fighting, ſneak'd into Winter-Quarters.

The French King has ſent new Aſſurances to the Imperial Court, that Succours ſhall never be wanting to his Majeſty (to deſolate Germany, and even his Hereditary Dominions) till the Court of Vienna condeſcends to reaſonable Terms, i. e. ſuffers its Power to be meaſured out by a French Standard. In conſequence of this it has been reſolved, that Part of the French Army ſhall take Winter Quarters in the Archbiſhoprick of Saltzburgh, on account of the Archbiſhop's lending the Auſtrians ſix Pieces of Cannon to batter Braunau; which is a Crime puniſhable by French Cabals, tho' not by the Dyet of the Empire.

We are well inform'd by private Letters from Holland, that, notwithſtanding the Marquis de Fenelon's Memorial, the Intrigues of the Abbe de la Ville at the Hague, and of M. Amelot at Paris with M. Van Hoey in the Name of the Cardinal, yet the Baron Van Reiſach the Queen of Hungary's Reſident will very ſpeedily receive the Subſidies granted her in virtue of Treaties by the States General. The Arts of a certain Court begin now to be ſeen thro' by all Europe, and 'tis not impoſſible the Power of ——— alone may bring her to ſtoop as low in her Terms of Peace as ſhe has lately done to the Dey of Tunis.

Yeſterday the Rev. Dr. Clarke preached before his Majeſty, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke, and the Princeſſes, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

On Saturday Mr. Robinſon, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, was diſpatch'd from the Lord Carteret's Office, Whitehall, for Flanders.

Early on Friday Morning laſt the Cambridge Stage-Coach was robb'd, ſoon after it ſet out from thence, by a ſingle Highwayman, well mounted, who took from a Gentleman who was a Paſſenger 25 Guineas, and made off.

Yeſterday a great Number of People went to Paddington, to ſee the Ceremony of throwing Bread and Cheeſe out of the Steeple there, purſuant to the Will of Two Maiden Siſters, who were in great Want, and found Relief at that Place, and left Two Fields for the ſaid Charity for ever; which are called Bread and Cheeſe Fields to this Day.

On Saturday laſt the Right Hon. the Lord Stawell arrived in Town, from his Seat in Hampſhire to his Houſe in Rathbone Place Soho.

On Thurſday next 31 Days Subſiſtence will be iſſued out at the Pay-office Whitehall for his Majeſty's Forces, viz. from the 25th Inſtant to the 23d of January next.

The only true Specifick Tincture

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which in such intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above Twenty Years past, by its vastly excelling all other Things formerly invented or lately contrived for such Purposes

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent Return.

As only once using it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those already decay'd, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth upon Inspiration, and also occasions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but entirely preserves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Pain, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Instance as Persons innumerable have experienc'd.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparallel'd great character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only of the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Three Blue-Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 3 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.
